

The "Wet" ticket was elected by 1,000 majority in the city election at Atlanta last week.

The business failures in the United States for the week ending Dec. 9th aggregated 226 against 244 for the preceding week and 274 the corresponding week of last year.

John Arnsdorf, the assassin of Rev. Geo. C. Haddock, at Sioux City, who made himself obnoxious by the rigid enforcement of the prohibition law, was tried last week and acquitted.

One hundred and thirty of the 325 members of the Lower House of Congress are new men. Three of the last House—Hiscock, Reagan and Daniel—have been promoted to the Senate.

Hon. John S. Barbour has been nominated and elected to the Senate, by the Democratic Legislature of Virginia. He will step in when Ridderberger steps down and out Mar. 4, 1889.

Warren Meek, a boy 15 years old, is discussing the tariff in a series of articles to the Catlettsburg Democrat. Discussing the tariff at that tender age! What will he come to by the time he reaches manhood?

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson, is the father of a couple of bouncing twin babies, born on the 4th inst. Col. Clay formerly represented this district in Congress and is at present attorney of the Ohio Valley Isthroad Co.

Another train robbery has occurred in Arkansas, the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas Railroad being the sufferers. The train was stopped a few miles north of Texarkana and over $10,000 secured. Great excitement prevails and four men have been arrested and are in jail.

Judge J. W. Church, of Greenville, announces himself as a Republican candidate for State Senator. A Democratic convention will meet at Beaver Dam this week to nominate a candidate, and Col. Church proposes in advance to enter into an agreement to stay at home and make no canvass. The election comes off Dec. 22.

The Owensboro Daily Messenger, which is by far the best daily in the State outside of Louisville, scored another triumph by publishing the President's message in full the morning after its delivery to Congress. The editors had to roll up their sleeves and help put the matter in type, but the feat was accomplished and the paper came out on time.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the constitutionality of the Kansas prohibition law, the opinion being delivered by Justice Harlan. The case was taken up by liquor men who claimed that the law was unconstitutional in that it confiscated or destroyed the value of their liquor property by making it unlawful for them to dispose of the same.

Don M. Dickison, the new Postmaster General, is 41 years old and is something on the order of a dude in persons appearance. He is clean shaved around the mouth and has long flowing side whiskers that are the envy of the other members of the Cabinet. But they do say he is a democrat from away back and is in favor of making a wholesale sweep of Republican postmasters still in office. Don is a dandy.

Secretary Lamar has given a declaration that deprives the Union Pacific railroad of 200,000 acres of land southwest of Denver, Col., and authorized the Attorney General to bring suit if the railroad company refused to surrender its rights. If the land in question is no better than the sterile alkali plains of eastern and northern Colorado, it is hardly worth going to law about and the railroad should be glad to get rid of it.

Loving Gaines, of the Elton Progress, gives himself away after this fashion: "A Louisville young man has been arrested at Covington, Ky., upon a charge of "squeezing" married and single women. A rather soft impeachment to be sure, as the delicate sensations are doubtless mutual and therefore boners are easy. When 'hugging' becomes either a misdemeanor or a crime, the police force of not only the cities but the villages and country seats will necessarily be largely augmented."

Four assignments of business firms within forty-eight hours have created somewhat of a panic in Hopkinsville—Owensboro Messenger. This is news indeed in Hopkinsville. There were two assignments about two weeks ago. One of these was a small millinery store, the proprietor of which had been here less than a year and who attempted to engage in a business already over-crowded in the city. The other assignment was brought about by too much credit business and was by no means so unexpected as to produce a panic. Last week there was one other break, a druggist whose failure was brought about by the same causes—too much credit business and too much competition. All of these establishments have been hard pressed for months and it was simply a coincidence that they all collapsed about the same time.

The Republican Call.

The following extract from the Republican campaign circular, issued by the National Committee, gives notice of what the substance of the National Platform will be next year:

"Republican electors in the several States and voters without regard to past political affiliation, difference or action, who believe in the American principle of a protective tariff for the defense and development of home industries and the elevation of homesteads, who would reduce the National taxes and prevent the accumulation of the surplus in the treasury in harmony with this principle; who are opposed to the attempt now more openly avowed than ever before to establish a policy which would strike down American labor to the level of the underpaid and oppressed workers of foreign land; who favor a system of naval and coast defenses which will enable the United States to conduct its international negotiations with self-respect; who greatly cherish the defenders of the country; who condemn and resent the continued and unjust exclusion of rapidly-growing Territories, which have an indisputable title to admission into the sisterhood of States; who are in favor of free schools and popular education, a free and honest ballot and fair count; the protection of every citizen of the United States in his legal rights at home and abroad; a foreign policy that shall extend our trade and commerce to every land and clime, and shall properly support the dignity of the nation, and the promotion of friendly and harmonious relations and intercourse between all the States, are cordially invited to unite under this call in the formation of a national ticket."

The Chicago Tribune takes strong ground against Mr. Blaine's tariff views.

A heavy rain in Texas has broken the drought and the wheat crop is saved.

The Toledo Oil company has sold out to the Standard monopoly.

A heavy rain in Texas has broken the drought and the wheat crop is saved.

The wife of Geo. W. Phillips, of Odell, Ill., committed suicide by shooting.

Three negroes were lynched near Rives, Tenn., for assaulting a 10-year-old girl.

On the New York metal exchange Friday it reached the highest point of the year.

Nina Van Zandt was recognized as Mrs. Spies by a Chicago library association.

Expert architects declare the Texas Capital building perfectly safe in its construction.

Rev. E. P. Humphrey, a distinguished minister, died Thursday at Louisville, Ky.

Two thousand members of the Evangelical alliance called on President Cleveland.

The wife of Alderman John Langhorne died at Hot Springs, Ark., of hydrocephalus.

In a collision on the Illinois Central, near Dixon, Engineer Carl Wood was killed.

Tennessee state officials say the debt interest due in January will be promptly paid.

Two rebellious assemblages of the Knights of Labor, at Chicago, have been suspended.

Arch-Abbot Bouface Wimmers, founder of the Benevolent Order in the United States, is dead.

Dewy Ensign, the boy heir to a considerable fortune at Kansas City, was turned up at San Francisco.

New York is alarmed at developments tending to prove that the people are having diseased ice sold to them.

The election of Blaine, as Sherman preferred Cincinnati, offers $100 to aid the public to fight corporations who fail to do the right thing.

Angelo Mode, of Brooklyn, was assassinated by some unknown person, and after a desperate battle in the dark, was fatally injured.

Four miners fell out of the carriage in a coal shaft, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., and two of them were instantly killed, the other two being fatally injured.

In a freight train collision on the Cincinnati Southern, the fireman, Wm. Ilutzell, was killed, and the engineer, Daryl O'Donel, maimed for life.

Hart Christopher, a young farmer living near St. Joseph, Mo., killed his farm hand, the result of a quarrel which commenced in a prayer meeting.

The stockholders of the St. Louis and San Francisco are said to have authorized the issue of $50,000,000 in bonds, to be used in the construction of new lines.

Cipher letters between Bunker Harper and Josie Holmes and big checks to be used in emergencies are creating new interest in the Fidelity bank fraud sensation at Cincinnati.

Harry Johnson, captured by the sheriff of Hinsdale county, Texas, through the efforts of the treasurer of the bank to the robbery of the treasurer's safe at Circleville, Reynolds County, Mo., November 25, securing $20,000.

The United States supreme court sustained the decision of the lower court in the two prohibition cases of Peter Mugler against the state of Kansas, which in effect declares the prohibition law of Kansas valid.

Two little boys, Sam and Willie Baldwin, run away from their home at Kearney, Mo., and tramped all the way to St. Joseph, to see their mother, who is confined in an insane asylum there.

KENTUCKY KNOWLEDGE.

Henderson has organized a Board of Trade.

Joseph Smith, aged 61, was found dead at Lehman.

Wm. Woodall, of Muhlenberg county, was killed by a falling tree.

Maj. P. P. Johnson, of Lexington, is an applicant for the Mexican Mission.

Claud Harris, a negro cook on the Sien, walked overboard near Owensboro and was drowned.

Chas. Dickens, Jr., son of the novelist, read selections from his father's writings, at Louisville, last week.

Wm. Morton, col., committed suicide at Louisville because he lost all his possessions betting that Avery would be elected Mayor.

The Ohio Valley Railroad will change its northern terminal point from Leavenworth to Evansville. The line will be extended at once.

Emma Wendtken died at Louisville last week from an abortion attempted by Mrs. Mary A. Peoples, a professional abortionist. The murderer gave a $2,000 bond to appear on the 14th and is almost certain to be found guilty and sent to the penitentiary.

The patent process of dredging by pumping from the bottom of the river, it is said will empty Reelfoot lake high and dry through the Obion river, in two weeks time and with the aid of a seventeen mile levee from Hickman to the highlands of Madrid Bend, would reclaim and hold the 64 acres of the lake and 100,000 acres contiguous over-flowed lands, to permanent and prosperous cultivation. The cost of the levee by engineer's figures is estimated at not exceeding $140,000, and the increased value of lands reclaimed would reach several million dollars.—Hickman Journal.

GENERAL NEWS.

The people in the western part of Kansas are suffering for coal.

The Toledo Oil company has sold out to the Standard monopoly.

A heavy rain in Texas has broken the drought and the wheat crop is saved.

The Chicago Tribune takes strong ground against Mr. Blaine's tariff views.

The wife of Geo. W. Phillips, of Odell, Ill., committed suicide by shooting.

Three negroes were lynched near Rives, Tenn., for assaulting a 10-year-old girl.

On the New York metal exchange Friday it reached the highest point of the year.

Nina Van Zandt was recognized as Mrs. Spies by a Chicago library association.

Expert architects declare the Texas Capital building perfectly safe in its construction.

Rev. E. P. Humphrey, a distinguished minister, died Thursday at Louisville, Ky.

Two thousand members of the Evangelical alliance called on President Cleveland.

The wife of Alderman John Langhorne died at Hot Springs, Ark., of hydrocephalus.

In a collision on the Illinois Central, near Dixon, Engineer Carl Wood was killed.

Two rebellious assemblages of the Knights of Labor, at Chicago, have been suspended.

Arch-Abbot Bouface Wimmers, founder of the Benevolent Order in the United States, is dead.

Dewy Ensign, the boy heir to a considerable fortune at Kansas City, was turned up at San Francisco.

New York is alarmed at developments tending to prove that the people are having diseased ice sold to them.

The election of Blaine, as Sherman preferred Cincinnati, offers $100 to aid the public to fight corporations who fail to do the right thing.

Angelo Mode, of Brooklyn, was assassinated by some unknown person, and after a desperate battle in the dark, was fatally injured.

Four miners fell out of the carriage in a coal shaft, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., and two of them were instantly killed, the other two being fatally injured.

In a freight train collision on the Cincinnati Southern, the fireman, Wm. Ilutzell, was killed, and the engineer, Daryl O'Donel, maimed for life.

Hart Christopher, a young farmer living near St. Joseph, Mo., killed his farm hand, the result of a quarrel which commenced in a prayer meeting.

The stockholders of the St. Louis and San Francisco are said to have authorized the issue of $50,000,000 in bonds, to be used in the construction of new lines.

Cipher letters between Bunker Harper and Josie Holmes and big checks to be used in emergencies are creating new interest in the Fidelity bank fraud sensation at Cincinnati.

Harry Johnson, captured by the sheriff of Hinsdale county, Texas, through the efforts of the treasurer of the bank to the robbery of the treasurer's safe at Circleville, Reynolds County, Mo., November 25, securing $20,000.

The United States supreme court sustained the decision of the lower court in the two prohibition cases of Peter Mugler against the state of Kansas, which in effect declares the prohibition law of Kansas valid.

Two little boys, Sam and Willie Baldwin, run away from their home at Kearney, Mo., and tramped all the way to St. Joseph, to see their mother, who is confined in an insane asylum there.

Kentucky Knowledge.

Henderson has organized a Board of Trade.

Joseph Smith, aged 61, was found dead at Lehman.

Wm. Woodall, of Muhlenberg county, was killed by a falling tree.

Maj. P. P. Johnson, of Lexington, is an applicant for the Mexican Mission.

Claud Harris, a negro cook on the Sien, walked overboard near Owensboro and was drowned.

Chas. Dickens, Jr., son of the novelist, read selections from his father's writings, at Louisville, last week.

Wm. Morton, col., committed suicide at Louisville because he lost all his possessions betting that Avery would be elected Mayor.

The Ohio Valley Railroad will change its northern terminal point from Leavenworth to Evansville. The line will be extended at once.

Emma Wendtken died at Louisville last week from an abortion attempted by Mrs. Mary A. Peoples, a professional abortionist. The murderer gave a $2,000 bond to appear on the 14th and is almost certain to be found guilty and sent to the penitentiary.

The patent process of dredging by pumping from the bottom of the river, it is said will empty Reelfoot lake high and dry through the Obion river, in two weeks time and with the aid of a seventeen mile levee from Hickman to the highlands of Madrid Bend, would reclaim and hold the 64 acres of the lake and 100,000 acres contiguous over-flowed lands, to permanent and prosperous cultivation.

The cost of the levee by engineer's figures is estimated at not exceeding $140,000, and the increased value of lands reclaimed would reach several million dollars.—Hickman Journal.

Sales by Hancock, Fraser & Ragsdale, Clarksville, Tenn., Dec. 8th, for two weeks, of 165 hds, as follows:

116 hds. Good and Medium Leaf

$13.50, 13.50, 12.50, 12.00, 12.00,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

12.00, 12.00, 11.50, 11.50, 11.50,

Semi-Weekly SOUTH KENTUCKIAN

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1887.

HALF RATE LOCALS

The following classes of local matter will be inserted at half rate, December 1887: Notices of respect, names of thanks; notices of expense, club lists, carly notices, and such other notices as may be charged; calls for meetings of committees, distributions, etc. Notices of all events in the city and line. These must be strictly adhered to. Our space is our stock in trade, and we do not care to have it filled free or full up the paper with matter of no general interest.

TIME TABLE FOR TRAINS.

L. & N. Railroad.
DAKAR SOUTHERN—4:45 and 8:30 A.M.; 1:15 P.M.
DAKAR EASTERN—10:30 A.M.; 1:15 P.M.
DAKAR FROM SOUTH—10:30 A.M.; 1:15 P.M.
DAKAR FROM NORTH—4:45 A.M.; 8:30 P.M.

John W. Logden, Agent, Hopkinsville, Ky.
POST OFFICE—West Main Street, bet. 2nd and 3rd.

Open for letters, 8:30 A.M. to 8 P.M.;
" " mean orders—A.M. to 6 P.M.
" " money orders—8:30 A.M. to 1:15 P.M.

ROUTE—Express Office,
Seventh St., near Main.

Open 8 A.M. to 8 P.M.

TELEGRAPH OFFICES.

Wesraam Union—Up stairs corner Main and Shattoe, Mrs. Handie and Miss Park, operators.

For Louisville, Chesapeake & Ohio Route.

No. 1.
Lvs. Hopkinsville, L. N., 10:30 A.M.
Arr. Nortonville, Ky., 11:30 A.M.

Lvs. Nortonville, U. S., 1:30 P.M.; 7:30 A.M.

Arr. Louisville, Ky., 1:30 P.M.; 8:30 P.M.

Arr. Paducah, Ky., 10:30 P.M.

Arr. Rivers, M. & O. H., 7:30 A.M.; 10:30 P.M.

Arr. Memphis, Tenn., 1:30 P.M.; 8:30 P.M.

Arr. Vicksburg, Miss., 10:30 A.M.; 8:30 P.M.

Arr. New Orleans, La., 9:30 A.M.; 6:30 P.M.

Ms. Hern's Fullman Buffet Sleeping Cars
Ticket Office—Orleans, New Orleans, La., Cables for all points in Texas, Arizona and California. Ms. has Combination Parlor, Re-cining and Dining Room. $22.00 good until October 1st.
Any orders sent Mr. Brown will receive prompt personal attention and satisfaction will be guaranteed. Send him a trial order and he will treat
you right.

J. F. GORDON & CO.,
Office, Wheeler, Mills & Co.

Ladies are not expected to attend
the variety performance at the Opera House this evening. While there is nothing immoral about it, it is strictly a "bold-headed" show.

Our Seventh street contemporary,
is making a strenuous effort to regulate the morals of its immediate neighborhood. Fire has been set to purify the surroundings that make our neighborhood miserably.

Isaac Hord, who lives on the Hutton road, near the Asylum, reported
Friday afternoon that thieves had entered his house while his family was absent that morning and robbed him of $50 and a pistol. No clue has been found.

Messrs. Bowles & Snoddy have opened an elegant photograph gallery on 9th street, up stairs next room to South KENTUCKIAN office,
and are now prepared to take first-class pictures at reasonable prices.

Capt. Ned Campbell is said to be a candidate for City Tax Collector and as he is in political accord with the incoming board the chances are that he will be chosen.
Mr. Graves, the present efficient collector, would also like to have the office again.

The first meeting of the Tennis
Club was held at the Burke House last week, which was attended by the members of the club and a number of invited guests. A nice supper was provided and the affair was altogether a very pleasurable event.

The Elton Dramatic Co. will give an entertainment at the Elton Opera House this evening at which Emoch Arden will be presented followed by a farce, "The Peak Family."
The club is composed of the best known young ladies and gentlemen
about Elton.

Within the last week the following parties have taken out licenses to wed:
S. C. Combs to Anna L. Mahanah, Jas. P. Davis to Emma
Grace, Moses T. Lacy to Mary C. Miles, Nelin G. Brasher to Mrs.
Eliza C. Brashier. The last was issued yesterday, both parties being residents of Csky.

A meeting of citizens will be held
this evening to discuss railroads, waterworks and other important subjects. It is to be hoped that gentlemen who attend this meeting will not be suspected by their wives of having other objects in view when they leave home.

Haywood Turner, a colored boy about 13 years old, fell through the elevator hatchway of A. S. Winstead's three-story wholesale liquor house at Heuders, Ky., to the basement floor, but, strange to say, after being rubbed with some of the Colonel's Old Silk Velvet whisky, which he seals for $2.00 per gallon, walked away unbruised remarking, "Twas the furdest fall I ever had."

Miss Ella Garth, of Trenton, will be married to-morrow to Mr. Samuel E. Steger, also of Trenton. The ceremony will take place at the Baptist church at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.
The bride-to-be is a young and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
G. E. Garth and has frequently visited friends in this city.

The third, fourth and fifth indictments against Jackson Tate were called Friday and the following jury empanelled to try them: Jno. W.
Cooper, Marshal Adcock, John Willis,
J. H. Moss, John Young, P. C. Carter,
J. B. Jenkins, Tom Word,
Jno. W. Stith, Wes Buckner, col.,
Dick Harrison, col., Oscar Vaughn,
col.

The same witnesses in the previous case were examined and Messrs.
Brooklin and Stiles discussed the case for the defense and R. W. Henry appeared as the representative of the Commonwealth and the Law and Order Club. The case went to the jury Saturday at 2:30 and in fifteen minutes a verdict of "not guilty"
was returned. There are still eight cases against Tate and they were set for the 19th inst. and his recognizance
for $500 taken.

More Prohibition Cases.

The third, fourth and fifth indictments against Jackson Tate were called Friday and the following jury
empanelled to try them: Jno. W.
Cooper, Marshal Adcock, John Willis,
J. H. Moss, John Young, P. C. Carter,
J. B. Jenkins, Tom Word,
Jno. W. Stith, Wes Buckner, col.,
Dick Harrison, col., Oscar Vaughn,
col.

The same witnesses in the previous
case were examined and Messrs.
Brooklin and Stiles discussed the case for the defense and R. W. Henry appeared as the representative of the Commonwealth and the Law and Order Club. The case went to the jury Saturday at 2:30 and in fifteen minutes a verdict of "not guilty"
was returned. There are still eight cases against Tate and they were set for the 19th inst. and his recognizance
for $500 taken.

HERE AND THERE,

The store-room under the Kentuckian office is for rent for 1888.

There will be standing room only when the curtain rises this evening.

Front seats are going off rapidly for the show this evening.

The show girls, 30 in number, will be given an ovation at the depot when they arrive at 10 this morning.

The Armistead stock of drugs, books, stationery &c., is being sold at cost and great bargains are offered.

Pig Green was found guilty of grand larceny yesterday and jailed to await the sentence of the grand jury.

The Directory of the Clarksville club met last week and declared a dividend for the first time in several years.

Grand Chancellor H. H. Abernathy went to Bowling Green yesterday to organize a Knights of Pythias Lodge.

Policeman Stafford received the reward of $50 offered by the County Judge for the apprehension of John Skinner.

The Japanese Bazaar, by the Presbyterian ladies, was held only two nights, instead of three as advertised.
The lamenity of the weather interfered with its success.

The costs in the four cassins which Jas. Hern was fined amounted to $27.80, and the entire amount $227.80 was paid in court last week.

We will give you a larger pile of coal for your money than you can possibly procure elsewhere in this market. Try us.

J. F. GORDON & CO.,
Office, Wheeler, Mills & Co.

Ladies are not expected to attend
the variety performance at the Opera House this evening. While there is nothing immoral about it, it is strictly
a "bold-headed" show.

Our Seventh street contemporary,
is making a strenuous effort to regulate the morals of its immediate neighborhood. Fire has been set to purify
the surroundings that make our neighborhood miserably.

Isaac Hord, who lives on the
Hutton road, near the Asylum, reported
Friday afternoon that thieves had entered his house while his family
was absent that morning and robbed him of $50 and a pistol. No clue has been found.

Messrs. Bowles & Snoddy have opened an elegant photograph gallery
on 9th street, up stairs next
room to South KENTUCKIAN office,
and are now prepared to take first-
class pictures at reasonable prices.

Capt. Ned Campbell is said to be a candidate for City Tax Collector and as he is in political accord with the incoming
board the chances are that he will be chosen.
Mr. Graves, the present efficient collector, would also like to have the office again.

The first meeting of the Tennis
Club was held at the Burke House
last week, which was attended by the members of the club and a number of invited guests. A nice supper
was provided and the affair was altogether a very pleasurable event.

The Elton Dramatic Co. will give
an entertainment at the Elton Opera House this evening at which Emoch Arden will be presented followed by a farce, "The Peak Family."
The club is composed of the best known young ladies and gentlemen
about Elton.

Within the last week the following
parties have taken out licenses to wed:
S. C. Combs to Anna L. Mahanah, Jas. P. Davis to Emma
Grace, Moses T. Lacy to Mary C. Miles, Nelin G. Brasher to Mrs.
Eliza C. Brashier. The last was issued yesterday, both parties being residents of Csky.

A meeting of citizens will be held
this evening to discuss railroads,
waterworks and other important subjects. It is to be hoped that gentlemen who attend this meeting will not be suspected by their wives of having other objects in view when they leave home.

Haywood Turner, a colored boy
about 13 years old, fell through the elevator hatchway of A. S. Winstead's three-story wholesale liquor house at Heuders, Ky., to the basement
floor, but, strange to say, after being rubbed with some of the Colonel's Old Silk Velvet whisky, which he seals for $2.00 per gallon, walked away unbruised remarking, "Twas the furdest fall I ever had."

Miss Ella Garth, of Trenton, will be married to Mr. Samuel E. Steger, also of Trenton. The ceremony will take place at the Baptist church at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.
The bride-to-be is a young and
charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
G. E. Garth and has frequently visited friends in this city.

The third, fourth and fifth indictments against Jackson Tate were called Friday and the following jury
empanelled to try them: Jno. W.
Cooper, Marshal Adcock, John Willis,
J. H. Moss, John Young, P. C. Carter,
J. B. Jenkins, Tom Word,
Jno. W. Stith, Wes Buckner, col.,
Dick Harrison, col., Oscar Vaughn,
col.

The same witnesses in the previous
case were examined and Messrs.
Brooklin and Stiles discussed the case for the defense and R. W. Henry appeared as the representative of the Commonwealth and the Law and Order Club. The case went to the jury Saturday at 2:30 and in fifteen minutes a verdict of "not guilty"
was returned. There are still eight cases against Tate and they were set for the 19th inst. and his recognizance
for $500 taken.

Leslie Carnel, the 14-year-old grandson of J. M. Jackson, a resi- dent of district No. 2, was accidentally pushed into a kettle of hot lard at the latter's home Wednesday night. He fell backward into the kettle, principally upon his back, and was severely burned. He was removed to a hospital and is recovering.

The Brutal Assassin of Ballard Fourqurean Caught at Last.

John Skinner, alias Cox alita, lieutenant alias Lloyd, the negro who shot and wounded Mr. Fourqurean on Nov. 21, near this city, was arrested in Clarksville Saturday night by Policeman Alex Stafford and Constable Lowe. They were shadowing him and saw him enter a eating house in the suburbs and lay aside his pistol to wash and while he was washing his supper they stepped behind him, got the drop and hogged the game. He swore very vigorously and expressed great regret that he had been caught unarmed, but otherwise was quite submitted. His captors brought him to this city Sunday on the 10 o'clock train, hustled him into a closed carriage at the depot and buried him into jail.

The negro confessed his identity and acknowledged freely that he did the shooting, but pleads justification. His story is as follows:

He got into the wagon at the time and place stated by Fourqurean and when they had reached Michamish he told him that he would charge him 25 cents for the ride.
He told him he had but 5 cents and that then Fourqurean made him pay the 25 cents.

In this issue we call attention to the advertisement of J. S. Brown, distiller and wholesaler of liquor dealer, Springfield, Tenn. He makes and handles pure Robertson county sour and sweet, mash whiskies and apple and peach brandies. His goods range in age from two to eight years.
Any orders sent Mr. Brown will receive prompt personal attention and satisfaction will be guaranteed. Send him a trial order and he will treat
you right.

Cal Fairleigh, col., was arrested Sunday for drunkenness. His trial came up yesterday in the police court and Judge Brasher assessed a fine against him of $7 and trimmings.
Fairleigh stated that the whisky he drank was given to him by J. R.
Hicks and Geo. Pease, col., who live at Dr. Wood's Lovier place near town.
Attorney Ferguson had submitted his case to the court for a decision.

This is the substance of his account of the affair. It is needless to say that the part about the circumstances leading to the shooting is a tissue of lies.
His assault was an unprovoked attempt to assassinate an unarmed man, who was doing him a favor by permitting him to ride on his wagon. Skinner is a mean looking scoundrel and ought to be given the severest possible punishment. He is a very black fellow, only about 21 years old and has a scar on his lip by which he was easily identified. He has confessed to a dozen or more persons and talks about the occurrence in an insolent, boastful manner.

He was brought out yesterday and his examining trial set for Friday.
Judge Brasher thought it would not be safe to take him to Bellevue, so Fourqurean identified him. The latter was removed to his home a few days ago.
Skinner will therefore be kept in jail until his victim is well enough to attend the trial.
Very unfavorable reports were received yesterday of Mr. Fourqurean's condition.

Cart Loads of Caudle, Fresh Free
Stone Fruits, and Christmas Goods to Fill the Hearts of the Young full of Joy at

A. L. WILSON'S
THE CITY
CONFECTIONER.

8-1-13.

SILK BEAVERS
And Felt Hat Shapes at cost
Mrs. M. E. RODERS.

Young Ladies
Drop in at A. C. Shyer & Co.'s and look at the beautiful Posh and Velvet Scarfs for Christmas Presents.
Each tie in a beautiful glass case.

Rheumatism!
All who suffer with Rheumatism can easily cure it by calling on Dr.
M. Washington. Leave orders at Phoenix Hotel.

Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but a brief & ugly dream."—
And yet of all, when all the narrow limits of life are overdone, like consumption, consumption, like liver complaints or scrofula, which often make those afflicted feel that life is empty. But these can all be cured. The use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood, lung and liver remedy, does away with all mortal numbers;
brings back lost health, and fills life full of dreams of happiness and prosperity.
Druggists sell it.

Christian Co. Auxiliary Bible Society.

The 57th annual meeting of the above named society was held at the Baptist church Sunday night. Judge Lauder, the President, presided and all the officers were present. The annual address was delivered by Rev.
A. C. Biddle. The report of the Treasurer showed that the amount on hand and received during the year was $116.25. Of this, $72.88 had been remitted, leaving a balance of $43.50 now on hand. The Depositary's report showed the books on hand and last reported a balance of $10.75 which had been disbursed, leaving now on hand $4.85 in books. The election of J. L. Landes, President, Geo. C.
Long, Treasurer and E. H. Hopper, Depository. W. W. Clarke was elected Secretary and Messrs. J. P. Braden,
B. F. Enger, A. J. Gunn and W.
F. Randle were chosen as the Executive Committee. The next meeting will be held at the 9th Street Presbyterian church, Dec. 9, 1888.

Children take Lyon's Tastless Chilli Tonic as a pleasant to the taste as Lemon Sugar children eat it and never know it is medicine, never fails to cure Sooth.

SEMI-WEEKLY SOUTH LENTUSIAN
18 AND 20 NINTH STREET.
HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

Cheap Club Rates.

Subscribers to the Southern Reporter will be given the benefit of the following cheap club rates with other papers and periodicals:

B. & N. Daily Courier-Journal	$1.00
" " " Commercial	.80
" " " Farmers' Journal	.80
" " " and Farm and Pasture	.80
" " " Daily N. Y. World	.75
" " " Weekly World	.70
" " " N. Y. Sun	.70
" " " Little's Living Age	.90
" " " Toledo Blade	.90
" " " Detroit Free Press	.90
" " " Peck's Sun	.10
" " " Godby's Lady's Book	.60
" " " Demorest's Monthly Magazine	.60
" " " Ladies' Home Journal	.60
" " " Cottee's Heart	.60
" " " Donisthorpe's Companion, Boston	.60
" " " Venetian Magazine	.60
" " " Harper's Weekly	.60
" " " Harper's Hazard	.60
" " " Young Folks	.60

Countess Narona.

By WILKIE COLLINS.

DEAR AUNT AGNES: Our governess is going away. She has had money left to her in trust, and she has sent it to me to take care of until we drink her health. You promised to be our governess if we wanted another. We want you, mamma knows nothing about this. Please come before mamma can get another governess. Your loving Lucy who writes to you, and whose friends have tried to write, too, but they are too young to do it. They blot the paper."

"Your eld'ly niece," Agnes replied, as Henry looked at her in amazement. "The children used to call me aunt when I was staying with them in Ireland. The three girls were inseparable companions; they are the most charming children I know. It is quite true that I offered to be your governess, if they ever wanted one, on the day when I left them to return to London. I was writing to propose this to them when—"

"Not now more?" Henry exclaimed.

Agnes placed her unfinished letter in his hand. Enough of it had been written to show that she did seriously propose to enter the household of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Westwick as governess to their children. Henry's bewilderment was not to be expressed in words. "They won't believe you are earnest," he said.

"Are you not?" Agnes asked, quietly. "You are my brother Stephen's coudu; you are his wife's old friend."

"All the more reason, Henry, for trusting me with the charge of their children."

"But you are equal; you are not obliged to gain your living by teaching. There is something absurd in your entering their service as a governess."

"What is there absurd in it! The children love me; the mother loves me; the father has shown me immemorable instances of his true friendliness. The three girls are the dearest for the place, and as to my education, I must have completely forgotten it. Indeed, if I am not fit to teach three children, the eldest of whom is only 11 years old. You say I am their equal. Are there no other women who are? I have heard of such cases. Of course, when one is deeply in love. Besides, I don't know that I am their equal. Have I not heard that your brother Stephen was the text here to the title! Will he not be the new lord? Never mind answering me. We won't dispute it, and I will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced. "I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have enough courage and heart enough to say."

Henry submitted without being convinced.

"I will let you do what you will. I am living government, we will let the event. I am weary of my lonely, useless existence here, and eager to make my life more happy and more useful in the household of all others in which I should most like to have a place. If you will look again you will see that I have this to offer you before I leave."

"You don't know your brother and his wife as well as I do. If you doubt their answer, I believe they have